

FUTURE FORESTS SUMMIT

Presented by the Colorado Bark Beetle Cooperative (CBBC)

Friday, October 28, 2011

Colorado Mountain College, Breckenridge Campus

- 9:30 – 9:45            Welcome and Introductions
Sloan Shoemaker, CBBC Vice Chair/Executive Director Wilderness Workshop, Carbondale, CO
- 9:45 – 10:00        CBBC – History, Objectives, Vision
Tom Clark, CBBC Chair/Mayor of Kremmling, CO
- 10:00 – 11:00      Science Panel
Ecology of Lodgepole Pine Forests and Future of Post-beetle Forests
Dan Tinker, PhD, Associate Professor, Department of Botany and Program in Ecology, University of Wyoming, Laramie, WY
Modeling of Future Forests, Impacts on Wildlife and Watersheds
Claudia Regan, PhD, Regional Vegetation Ecologist, USDA Forest Service, Rocky Mountain Region, Golden, CO
- 11:00 – 12:00      Question & Answer/Discussion Session
Facilitated by Dr. Tony Cheng, Associate Professor in Forest Policy and Director of the Colorado Forest Restoration Institute at Colorado State University.
- 12:00 – 1:00        Lunch in the CMC Lobby
Please take some time to browse the MPB impact information in the CMC hallway
- 1:00 – 2:30         Agency Updates
United States Forest Service – Extent of the Beetle Infestation, Potential and Practical Treatment Areas , Western Bark Beetle Strategy Goals
Cal Wettstein, USFS, Incident Commander, Rocky Mountain Region Bark Beetle Incident Management Organization, Medicine Bow/Routt, Arapaho/Roosevelt, and White River National Forests
Colorado State Forest Service – Current and Future Treatments on State and Private Forest Lands
Rich Edwards, Colorado State Forest Service, Assistant Staff Forester, Forest Management Division, State Office, Fort Collins, CO
- 2:30 – 3:00         Summit Wrap Up
Key Take-Aways Related to the Post Beetle Future Forest - Dr. Tony Cheng
Setting the CBBC “Roadmap” for 2012- Sloan Shoemaker